THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE V. ESWARAIAH

W.P.No. 6574 of 2007

:O R D E R:

It is the case of the petitioner that he filed a civil suit for permanent injunction in O.S.No. 790 of 2007 on the file of learned Additional Junior Civil Judge, Ranga Reddy district and obtained an order of ad-interim injunction restraining M/s. Ram Reddy, Mir Ahmed Ali and Aslam Ghani from interfering with his peaceful possession and enjoyment over the plot No.68, Block-H in survey No.134/20 ad-measuring 290.86 square yards situated at Shashtripuram, Rajenderanagar, Ranga Reddy district and not to evict him from the suit schedule property.

It is stated that in spite of said ad-interim injunction order, which was granted by an order dated 15-03-2007 up to 30-03-2007 and which was also extended by an order dated 30-03-2007 till 20-04-2007, at the instance of the defendants in the suit, the first respondent also helping them to evict him and not implementing the orders of the Civil Court.

In the circumstances of the case, if the orders of the Civil Court are not implemented, it is open for the petitioner to approach the concerned Court seeking necessary orders for granting police protection to implement the ad-interim injunction order. Insofar as the matters where the civil rights have not been finally settled and wherever ad-interim injunction orders are granted, the concerned Civil Court is empowered to grant orders giving necessary police protection to implement the orders. Wherever civil rights are finally decided and if there is any interference by the third parties, on an application being made by owners of the property, the police also bound to give necessary protection. However, in the instant case, as the civil suit is pending before the Court, it is open for the petitioner to approach the concerned Civil Court and obtain necessary orders seeking police protection to implement the said ad-interim injunction order.

With the above observations, the writ petition is disposed of.
No costs.
